

Family Members

Family vocabulary is central to conversations about personal life and relationships. Words like "majka" (mother), "otac" (father), "brat" (brother), "sestra" (sister), and "baka" (grandmother) are essential. Serbian culture places strong emphasis on family, so you'll often encounter these terms in dialogue. This lesson goes beyond the basics and introduces you to extended family terms like "ujak" (uncle), "tetka" (aunt), and "rođak" (cousin). You'll learn how to describe your family using simple sentences like "Imam dva brata i jednu sestru" (I have two brothers and one sister). The exercises will help you practice family trees and relationships so you can talk about your family with confidence.
